

To start a café in Gujarat, India, you typically need several licenses, including an FSSAI license for food safety, an Eating House License from the local police, a Health/Trade License, a GST registration, and possibly a liquor license if you plan to serve alcohol. Additionally, you may need fire safety and environmental clearances.

1. FSSAI License

- Purpose: Ensures food safety and hygiene standards.
- Types:
 - FSSAI Registration for businesses with revenue < ₹12 lakhs/year.
 - State License for revenue between ₹12 lakhs and ₹20 crores/year.
 - Central License for revenue > ₹20 crores/year.
- Application: Online through the FSSAI portal.

2. Eating House License

- Purpose: Required for public restaurants serving food and beverages.
- Application: Submit documents to the Additional Commissioner of Police for verification.
- Cost: Approximately ₹300.

3. Health/Trade License

- Purpose: Permits operation of a business affecting public health.
- Application: Available at the local Municipal Corporation or Zonal Citizen's Service Bureaus.
- Documents Required: Site plan, electricity and water bills, rent agreement, etc.

4. GST Registration

- Purpose: Mandatory for tax compliance.
- Application: Online through the GST portal.
- Documents Required: PAN card, proof of business address, bank account details.

5. Liquor License (if applicable)

- Purpose: Required to serve alcoholic beverages.
- Types:
 - L-1 for manufacturing units.
 - L-6 for retail vendors.
 - P-13 for temporary licenses for events.
- Application: Submit to the state excise department.

6. Fire Safety License

- Purpose: Ensures compliance with fire safety regulations.
- Application: Obtain from the local fire department.
- Documents Required: NOC from the fire department, safety equipment details.

7. Environmental Clearance

- Purpose: Required for businesses that may impact the environment.
- Application: Submit a questionnaire for appraisal to the Ministry of Environment.
- Documents Required: NOCs from relevant authorities if applicable.

8. Signage License

- Purpose: Permits advertising your café.
- Application: Obtain from the local Municipal Committee or City Corporation.

9. Shop and Establishment License

- Purpose: Regulates working conditions and hours.
- Application: Submit to the Chief Inspector of Shops and Establishment.
- Documents Required: Business details, lease agreement, etc.

10. Music License (if applicable)

- Purpose: Required for playing music in the café.
- Application: Obtain from Phonographic Performance Limited.

Each of these licenses plays a crucial role in ensuring that your café operates legally and meets all health, safety, and regulatory standards.
